§10:127-3.5 Conflict of interest

(a) Each facility receiving funds from the Division shall adopt a written conflict of interest policy, as required by the facility's contract with the Department of Human Services.

1. The facility shall ensure that a copy of the adopted policy, with its effective date, is forwarded to all governing board members and staff members and is posted in a prominent location or kept on file at the facility.

2. The governing board shall ensure that the conflict of interest policy is adhered to by the facility director through the governing board's review of the facility's policies involving the purchasing of goods or services and hiring practices.
